Description:

The house is fenced by a stone wall and offers privacy to the user. The house is approved as a 4 star Villa from the Tourist board and can be rented. Local service team (gardener, cleaning, pool service, guard) is available. An Istrian indigenous stone house with a swimming pool is located in a small Istrian village near Labin. It has been completely renovated and decorated in a special style, keeping in mind the retention of the traditional elements that give it a special charm and authenticity. Together with a wonderful swimming pool you can also enjoy the spacious terrace. The house is surrounded by natural beauties like Učka Nature Park and beautiful pebble beaches as well as the Rabac Bay. The historic town of Labin is famous for its many art galleries and events during the summer.
